University of Massachusetts Boston

UMass Boston is committed to supporting your education, and that includes creating a great environment in which to live and learn. From waterfront living in our recently built on-campus residence halls to connecting you with nearby off-campus housing, UMass Boston’s housing staff support you from freshman year through senior year.

As students progress on their academic journey, their preferences for housing often shifts from year to year, and we’re here to help them navigate.

ON-CAMPUS

1. Live on-campus in the new residence halls to have instant access to the campus, not only for classes, but for resources, clubs, and activities.

NEIGHBORING CAMPUS

2. Apply to live on campus for your second year or decide to live in a private apartment within walking distance or a short shuttle ride to our waterfront campus.

HEART OF BOSTON

3. Live with friends in downtown Boston near jobs and internships that are only a quick T ride or car ride away from campus resources.

CONVENIENT COMMUTE

4. Live in the Greater Boston area in towns like Quincy, Braintree, Malden or Medford and take a quick drive or T ride to easily access campus.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING & RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Many freshman students choose the on-campus residence halls to have instant access to the coastline and campus, not only for classes, but for resources, clubs, and activities. Meet new friends; hang out or study together whenever you want. Feel safe 24/7 with live-on professional staff and campus security available around the clock. And with quick access to the T, the entire City of Boston is at your fingertips. Learn more: umb.edu/oncampushousing

OFFICE OF OFF-CAMPUS LIVING

Once students are ready to make their move off-campus, our dedicated staff helps students identify the best options available right next door to campus and throughout the Boston area. From a Step-By-Step Guide to Finding Housing, an interactive Housing Education Course, and a curated website of off-campus apartment listings, the UMass Boston Office of Off-Campus Living connects students to the tools and resources to have a successful college experience. Catering to the unique needs of each student, the Office of Off-Campus Living advises thousands of students every year in navigating the housing search process to find apartments that fit with their academic schedule and interests, access to work or internships, and commuting preferences.
